FROM PRINCIPAL'S DESK

This is yet another beginning from the part of budding writers of KV Kanhangad since they have also realised that a pen an idea can change the world. This quarterly journal, 'दर्पणम्' is the result of the continuous effort of handful of determined teachers to rekindle the latent sparks of creativity among their students. Along with original creative writing, brief reports of important events in the Vidyalaya during the past three months also have found place in these pages.

Youngsters these days spend most of their free time in the virtual space and mostly these activities are found to be not productive or meaningful. Ventures like school magazines open new avenues before our children to look into their own self and thus it serves as a powerful medium for self realisation, and not just an opportunity for building up language faculty. This is not only a platform to showcase the literary and artistic talents of our children, it is an effort to discover ourselves in the profound backdrop of our own history and tradition.

I take this opportunity to congratulate all the students and teachers behind this humble beginning and hope that they will come up with better ideas in coming issues of दर्पणम्.

Our children are scripting their own life, let us elders be patient and effective proof readers so that their final stories will be error free with happy endings. After all their success stories are our reward.

*Thank you
Jayasree N*

The Strange Meeting

Sneha Rawat was travelling by train to her brother's house in Trivandrum. She actually hated travelling by train. But at the same time she was excited that she was going to meet her brother after a long time. She had to board from the Mangalore Central station. She was travelling by Parashuram Express and it was scheduled to depart at 11:30PM. It was a day long journey.

The train was on time and she had her booking in AC III tier. She was feeling very nervous when she reached her seat, she saw a family of four having food. After finishing his food, one of the parents looked at Sneha and asked whether she was travelling in that cabin. Sneha nodded to that "I am Santhosh and what about you?" The man seemed friendly, so Sneha introduced herself to the whole family. By then the ticket examiner arrived to check the tickets: Sneha asked him if the seat below her's was vacant but he didn't answer. He tried to say something but stopped and went away. Santhosh and his family were getting ready to sleep. They said "Good night" to Sneha and retired to their respective berths. Sneha was not feeling sleepy so she climbed down to the unoccupied berth and started reading a book. Sneha dozed off after reading a few pages

Suddenly she felt someone pushing her and when she looked up, she saw a beautiful lady who smiled at her and said, "Oh! I am sorry I woke you up. This is my berth". Getting up Sneha stammered, "NO NO... I was reading a book and I don't know when I dozed off!!!" The lady sat beside her and said "I am Samitha Jain." Sneha introduced herself. They both began to talk. Sneha found Samitha to be a very good person.

A few minutes later Sneha said, "I wish there was something to eat while we are chatting." Samitha searched her bag and found a small tiffin containing salty snacks. They both shared it. "I am travelling to Alura to visit my mother," Samitha spoke, breaking the lingering silence. She told Sneha that she was getting married.

Samitha went on to tell Sneha about anything and everything. She took out some fancy bangles from her bag and gave Sneha some of them as a token of their friendship. Sneha refused a lot, but Samitha was a stubborn lady. She even gave Sneha an invitation card. It was late into the night and Sneha was getting sleepy. So, she climbed up to her berth and told Samitha, "I'm going to take some rest! Good night".

Sneha woke up next morning. She was late. She looked down to greet Samitha but she was not there. "Good morning Sneha," came a voice. Sneha saw Santhosh smiling at her. She smiled back and asked him, "where is the girl who was on the lower berth?" "There was no one who came here last night," Santhosh replied. The ticket examiner happened to pass by and Sneha asked him about Samitha. He replied in a sad tone, "A few years ago a woman named Samitha was killed in an accident while travelling in this train." He also added that many of the people who travelled on that particular upper berth had claimed to see her. The Ticket Examiner then went away and Sneha immediately opened her bag and saw that the card and the bangles were still there. She continued to look at them. Confused, she did not know whether to feel sad on losing a lovely friend or to tell others of her strange meeting with a soul.

Nurture Nature

Nature is the gift of God
Which is used by one and all,
Mountains and rivers
Oceans and seas
Water and Air with
Greenery and soil
Helps one and all
Water to drink
Air to breathe
Soil for life

Now, Nature is in a poor state
Plastic and pollution, everyone's fate
Deforestation and erosion
Plastic in water and Smoke in air
Spoils mother nature
in a manner very deadly Arise and awake to Save nature, before its too late
Save nature, for a safe future

Cafe In Flames

Waiter, where's my soup?

On its way sir, loop the loop!

Straight from our famous cooking pot,

Here it comes sir, piping hot!

But waiter, there is a fly in my soup,

That's no fly sir,

That's your chicken.

The smaller the chicken, the better the soup!

Waiter what's this object that's floating around?

Just a small beetle sir,

All our best guests

Are most happily fed here,

And where are they now?

All happily dead sir.

These Dreams

*When they see a horse in me,
I fly like a pigeon,
And when it rains and thunders,
I just fly over the clouds,
And what makes me keep flying,
Are these dreams,
They keep me going...
These dreams,
They keep me going...*

*When,
They don't even care for my dreams,
I play the music of ignorance...
They say that,
That won't happen to me,
I play the music of ignorance...
And what makes me keep playing,
Are these dreams,
They keep me going...*

*When,
They say that,
You won't make it to the peak,
I would keep climbing...
They say that,
You can't make it to the shore,
I just keep swimming...*

*And what makes me do so,
Are these dreams,
They keep me going...
These dreams,
They keep me going...
These dreams,
They keep me going...*

*But these days,
Seems to be more tough for me to move on,
And what I am doing now,
Is finding a way or,
Building a one,
And what makes me do so,
Are these dreams,
They keep me going...
These dreams,
They keep me going...*

The winter Starts to melt,
The cherry blossoms,
The birds fly to north,
The flowers smile,
The rivers chant,
It's the arrival of the

The sky pours down,
The birds sing the blossom,
The silence of spring,
take up the hearts.
The season of life,
increased the beauty of nature.

तोता और गलिहरी

जंगल में एक गलिहरी और एक तोता रहता था। गलिहरी और तोता अच्छे दोस्त थे। पर तोता एक घमंडी था। गलिहरी सारा दिन अपना काम करती थी पर तोता बहुत आलसी था। वह दिन भर सोता रहता था। बारिश का मौसम आने वाला था। गलिहरी ने कहा, “बारिश में खाना ढूंढने के लिए जाना मुश्किल है, इसलिए खाना ढूंढना शुरू करो।” तोते ने उसकी बात नहीं सुनी और वहां से चला गया। बारिश का मौसम आ गया। एक दो दिन तोते ने खाना नहीं खाया। एक दिन उसको बहुत भूख लगी। बाहर बारिश हो रही थी इसलिए बाहर जाना बहुत मुश्किल था लेकिन फिर भी उसे जाना पड़ा। उसने सभी जगह देखा पर उसे कुछ नहीं मिला। वह सभी जानवरों के घर गया पर किसी ने भी उसे खाना नहीं दिया। अंत में वह गलिहरी के घर गया। गलिहरी ने उसे अंदर बुलाकर खाना खिलाया। तोते को समझ में आ गया कि आलस करने से कुछ प्राप्त नहीं होता है और अभी से मेहनत करके जीना है।

क्योंकि मेहनत का फल मीठा होता है।
